The Last Babies.

Come, my wife, lay down the Bible,
Lay your glasses on the shelf;
Both of us are bent and aged,
Backward mother, let us rest.

Where I brought you, long ago,
When the hair was bright with sunshine
That is now like winter's snow,
Let us talk about the babies.

As we sit here all alone,
Such a merry troop of youngsters;
How we lost them, one by one,
Till the first of all the past.

Came to us one winter's night;
Jack, you said, should be the person,
Long before he saw the light,
As you see that great cathedral,
Filled from treble to the nave;
How the organ, grandly swelling,
Watch the silken hangings wave;
With the altar at his back,
Would you think that gifted preacher
Could be our own little Jack?

Then a girl, with early tresses,
Tied to think upon my knee,
Like a little fairy princess,
Ruling at the age of three.

With the years there came a wedding—
How your face beamed with pride
When the lord of all the country
Chose your baby for his bride!

Watch that stately carriage coming,
And that form reclining there—
Would you think that stately lady
Could be our own little Clara?

Then the last, a blue-eyed youngster—
I can hear him prattling now—
Each a strong and sturdy fellow,
With his head's an earnest brow.

How he used to love his mother;
Ah! I see your trembling lip;
He is far off on the water,
Captain of a royal ship.

See the bronze upon his forehead,
Hear the voice of stern command—
That's the boy who clung so fondly
To his mother's gentle hand.

Ah! my wife, we've lost our babies,
Turned to fog and mist and rain,
What are we to these great people,
Ninety men and women grown?

Sadness do we ever so often Yes, a bitter tear-drop starts,
And we sit here in the twilight,
Lonely hearts and lonely hearts.

All their lives we'll think of them,
They'll sleep long enough one day,
Just to lay us in the church-yard,
Then they'll each go on their way.

House Cleaning.

The carpet looks tremble all over with grief,
And the tick-hammer's joyous and gay,
To think what a time these things will be Twist now and the first of May.

Blow Out Them Candles.

In years ago, when the tallow candle was the brightest light in the richest farm house of the land, an old chap, living over in Jersey, got word one day that a New Yorker was coming out to see his farm, with a view of purchasing. The whole family dom-ined their Sunday best, and as evening came the anxious farmer looked down the road and said to his wife:

"There he comes, Sally, you'll bet ter light three candles."

He took another look and suggested that the light two more dips, so as to give the house a cheerful appearance, and took his station at the gate to welcome the expected purchaser.
Five candles illuminated the old farmhouse as the traveler drove up in a buggy. The farmer took one long squint at him through the gloom, and then hurried into the house shouting out:

"Sally! Sally! Blow out four of them candles quicker'n a cat, for it's nothing but a bald-headed circuit ridder."—[Wall-street News.]

Oh, no, my son, that dignified gentleman who looks down upon you with such majestic complacency, who possesses the grace of Apollo Belvidere, the proud front of Jove and the equani-mity of the unmuffled remains of Rameses the First—that sublime personage, my son, is not an Emperor, King, Prince or President of some powerful nation, neither is he the owner of countless millions, nor the landlord of this caravansary. He is far above all thrones, dominations, prin-ceships, virtues, powers. He is mightiest in the night. Look at him, my son, and tremble. Behold the head waiter, and shrink into nothingness before his transcendent grandeur and—check.—[Boston Transcript.]

Hou, M. H. Owley, of Lancaster, is spending a few days in this city.
He has been frequently and promi-nently mentioned in connection with the democratic gubernatorial nomination for 1883, and we understand he has determined to become a candidate. As Circuit Judge of his district for the past eight years, Judge Owley has made for himself a fine reputation. He is a pleasant gentleman, a true democrat, and as a candidate for governor, will receive a hearty support from democrats in all parts of the State.—[Frankfort Yeoman.]

Couldn't keep the run: A leading citizen of Dallas, one of the most intelligent property-owners in the town, was reading a newspaper in the Texas Sittings office yesterday, when he came across the paragraph, "The admission of Dakota is a foregone conclusion at Washington," whereupon he said: "I can't keep up with the run of the Washington scandals, there are so many of them. What did Dakota admit?"

Jumbo's first refreshments on American soil were whisky and onions, and John Kelly, wandering in the vicinity of the cage, exclaimed—"The boys are in a caucus!"

Saturday Night.

While life lasts, years, months, weeks and days come alike to all.
This great big planet, with its mountains, hills and valleys, continues to revolve in the immensity of space, performing its usual revolutions.

Time moves on. We can not, as did Joshua of old, compel the sun to stand still, even for an instant. The golden moments—life's most precious treasures, so precious that only one is given to us at a time—are fast passing away.

The tireless hands of the great town clock in its high tower indicate with unerring certainty the fleetness of time. We note their position on the broad, white dial-plate, and say we will be here or there in business or pleasure, at a certain time, to perform some deed or fulfill some promise.
We build castles and fill them with boonies which satisfy our immortal longings for the time being, but when we approach them, like the mirage of the desert, they have disappeared, leaving us to build and furnish another. And so the world goes on from year to year, until the last day is reached and life's labors and pleasures are over. Each locality—each heart —has had its sensation. Perhaps it may have been a love affair, perhaps an entanglement in the meshes of the law, perhaps a long looked for wedding, a birth, a death, or the saddest of all, the ruin of some poor, misguided soul.
The comedy of life is the better part of it all. The good and true and vir-tuous of the world are surely entitled to as much of its pleasantness as those who are steeped in the mire and slime of dissipation and sin, and it is well to make the most and best of the days that are ours.

But the play will soon be finished, the curtain rung down, and the lights extinguished on this great drama which we call life, and all should qualify themselves for their part in the great final tragedy of death.

Vengeance Upon a Mule.

Old Silas was a very revengeful man. Now, Silas owned a mule, and one day the mule raised his hind legs and smote Silas, whereupon the old man sat upon the barn floor and wept.
Suddenly he smiled, and seizing a grain sack he filled it with sand and stones, and tied a leather apron around it. Then he hung it down from a beam right behind the mule.
A shudder passed over the animal, but he nerved himself and let fly. He sent the bag to the roof, but the recoil struck him with surprise, not only once, but two or three times. The mule was astonished, shocked! He wasn't used to being kicked back.
Old Silas laughed until tears ran down his cheeks. The mule kicked again and the bag kicked back. They kept up the contest all day, and towards evening the mule showed signs of weakening, but old Silas was not satisfied yet. He went to bed, and during the night he heard the mule braying for mercy, but his heart was hardened. When he went to the stable in the morning the sand bag was as fresh as ever, but the mule had laid down in despair and was dead—died of a broken heart.

THE GIFT DOBBLE.—A woman was buying tea at a place in Washington, where, on certain days, diamonds, rings and money are given away as prizes in a certain number of packages sold. The other day a lady stepped forward and invested her dollar. "I'll give you $5 for your package before opening," said the clerk. She declined. It was opened. There were only fifteen cents in it. She bought another package, the same offer made and declined. There were only fifteen cents in that one. She bought a third package. "I'll give you $35," she hesitated, then consented. It was opened and found to contain $500 in gold pieces. This attracted attention, and the buying of $1 packages became very brisk. A gentleman followed the lady to her hotel and asked her name. Mrs. —, said the clerk. It was the wife of the proprietor of the tea store.

THE FASTEST OCEAN TRIP.—The steamship Alaska, of the Guion Line, now stands at the head of the list of fast ocean vessels. The recent trip across the Atlantic was accomplished in 7 days 6 hours and 43 minutes actual time. She sailed from New York on March 21 and passed Fastnet on 5:20 p. m. on the 28th. The fastest voyage which has been made previous to this was by the famous Arizona, also of the Guion Line, which crossed the Atlantic in 7 hours 7 days and 45 minutes. The weather is not reported to have been unusually fine.

ARCHERY FOR FIREMEN.—A number of experiments were tried in Washington lately by General Meigs, to test the utility of bows and arrows for carrying life lines for fire escapes. He found that an arrow carrying a ball of twine could be shot with considerable accuracy to a height of eighty feet.
The twine was strong enough to lift a rope ladder to the windows of a roof of a lofty building.

Barnes, the Kentucky evangelist, accepted a purse of $300 for his highly successful revival work in the village of Paris. This fact is being used against him, on the ground that he professes utter disinterestedness. He replicates that the money will be devoted to the education of his daughter.—

As a purifier of the blood, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is no equal. It wonderfully improves the complexion, and brings to old and young the bloom of health.

Newspaper Borrowers.

An exchange recently published a letter from a lady subscriber, in which she complained bitterly of the annoyance she experienced from the habit her female neighbors had of constantly borrowing her papers. The exchange offers the suffering lady, and others similarly situated, an adequate means of succor. Here is the plan: Let the lady, immediately upon receiving the paper, carefully cut from it some item—most any item will do, only let it be neatly and carefully removed from the paper. Then the following procedure will be sure to ensue: In a few moments the neighbor's boy will come after the paper—he will take it home—within three minutes he will emerge from the house and scold down the street and very often return with a folded newspaper of the same date as the one just borrowed. By the time the clipped paper has circled around among the female borrowers, the streets will be living with hurrying boys, and the revenue of the paper will be materially increased. Not one woman among them will be able to sleep a wink without knowing just exactly what that cut-out item was. The next day the lady must pursue the same course, and similar results will surely follow.
In an extremely obstinate neigh-hood these proceedings have to be repeated three or four days, but no longer. By that time the lady will be able to read her paper in peace, and the newspaper's financier will be the gainer through several new subscribers. This rule is infallible where the borrowers are females, but it can't be touched for in the case of men.
There isn't that inherent curiosity to work upon, you know, and—and—but perhaps we are getting a little too deep.

KISS YOUR WIVES.—Bro. Barnes, in one of his last sermons here said that men's husbands were too common, and could be found everywhere. He spoke of the power of kindness, and said there were probably men under the sun of his voice who had not kissed their wives for five years. And those wives who are now faded women, years ago were blooming girls, to whom these now neglectful husbands gave down on their "marrow bones" vowing they would not live without,
and pledging eternal love and fidelity.
These women were now starving for the love on which they fed in the first years of wedlock. "Go home," exclaimed Mr. Barnes, "throw your arms around the old woman's neck, and surprise her with a rousing snack, and see how much good will result from it. We cannot, of course, say whether or not Mr. B.'s advice was taken, but had we been a Benedict we could not have resisted it.—[True Kentuckian.]

ROBBERIES BY THE JAMES GANG.— The bank and train robberies committed by the James gang are as follows: Columbia, Ky., $15,000; Russellville, $20,000; Huntington, W.
Va., $19,000; Liberty, Mo., $12,000; Corydon, Iowa, $9,000; St. Genevieve, Mo., $17,000; Corinth, Miss., $9,000;
Jewelry at Corinth, $5,000; Gad's Hill, $20,000; Monaca, $20,000; Big Spring, gold, $50,000. Total, $206, 000. This does not include stage and other robberies which are estimated at over $50,000.

THE WISE EDITOR.—A western editor offers a prize of $50 and a year's subscription for the best written proposal of marriage from a lady. He picked out a nice proposal from a beautiful and wealthy widow, answered it, accepting the proposal, and with the threat of a breach of promise suit, actually captured her. Editors may not acquire wealth by writing twenty-three hours a day, but when their genius takes the right shoot, they procure the permissions.—[Boomerang.]

An Irishman applied to an overseer of a ship-yard to be put on a job. He was informed that his request could not be complied with; but, as Pat continued to gaze at an anchor which was lying in the vicinity, the foreman repeated his reply that there was no work for him, and advised him to go away. "Divil the bit will I stir, sorr, till I see the mon that's going to use that pick!"

A story is told of a Jew of Tewks-bury, in 1820, who fell into a well on Saturday—the Jewish Sabbath. Out of reverence for the day he would not suffer himself to be drawn out. The Earl of Glaston, on whose land the well was, would not allow him to be taken out the next day out of respect for Sunday, and before Monday came he died.

"Gentlemen of the jury," said a blundering counsel, in a suit about a lot of logs, "there were just thirty-six in the drove. Please remember the fact—thirty-six logs; just three times as many as in that jury box, gentlemen." That counsel didn't gain his case.

Young man, if you had one and two-thirds tons of gold coin, you would be worth just a million dollars. Every little piece of gold you get hold of throw into the junk pile until you accumulate that weight. You can then sell it and become a rich man.—[New Haven Register.]

The Pardoning Power.

Gov. Blighburn has just gotten in some of his peculiar work down here.
James Ferguson was indicted about two years ago for the murder of his nephew, Lunsford Ferguson, and from the facts developed in the case, if there ever was a man that deserved punishment for a crime, Jim was the man. He had the ablest and most skillful attorneys that practice here to defend him, and although they did their level best in his defense, the most they could do was to hang the jury in the two trials he had here.
But on Monday, when he was arraigned for trial the third time, his attorneys appeared with one of the Governor's ever convenient pardons and speedily terminated the case. Two juries, after hearing all the facts in the case, failed to acquit him, but the Governor, without seeing the witnesses or knowing much about the case, came to the conclusion at once that he ought not to be punished. Hart county juries have long been charged with too great leniency to violators of the law. The Governor seems able, however, to double discount them, and whether they have been charged wrongfully or not, the Governor's handy and frequent use of the pardoning power has done much to clog the wheels of justice and prevent a proper execution of the law in this county.— [Hart County Local.]

A certain boat coming up the Mississippi the other day lost her way and bumped up against a frame house.
She hadn't more than touched it before an old darkey rammed his head up through a hole in the roof where the chimney once came out and yelled out at the captain on the roof: "Whar de hell am yer gwine wid dat boat?
Can't yer see nuffin? Fust thing yer knows yer gwine ter turn dis house over, and apill de ole 'oman an de chilen out in de flood and drown 'em.
Wat yer doin out here wid de damn boat, anyhow! Go on back yander trod de co'n fields an' git back in de ribber whar yer b'longs. Aint got no business sev'n miles out in de country trod'n round people's houses, no how!"
and she backed out.—[Memphis Appeal.]

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL, the other day, perpetrated the best joke of the season when, in speaking of a jury selected to try a murderer, it designated them as "the gentlemen in whose hands the life of the defendant was placed." The idea of a trial for murder in Kentucky endangering the life of the defendant—unless he is exceptionally mean "poor white trash," or a nigger.—[Breckinridge News.]

"Oh, my—wow!—wooch!" exclaimed a man, as he bounded out of a Chicago dentist's chair, one day this week; wh—wha—what under the sun are you doing?" "Doing?" said the dentist;
"why, I was only hauling away on that subbor'n old tooth!" "Oh, is that all?" cried the man. "By gum, I thought you'd made a mistake and got hold of my eternal soul!"

In olden times people lived to be 800 years old, but they didn't have any more fun in 800 years than people do now in twenty-five. The liquor they had in those days was so mild, that it took six days of steady drinking to get comfortably drunk.

The Senate very promptly, and perhaps justly, refused to confirm Gov. Blackburn's pet railroad commission, McCleskey, Boyd and Thompson, and that put the old man to the trouble of making other nominations. On the second labor, W. M. Beckner, of Clark, D. Howard Smith, of Henry, and W. B. Machen, of Lynn, were brought forth, and the nominations were received by the grave and reverend Senators with unqualified applause. With one exception, the new team is a decided improvement on the one rejected. Col. Smith was Auditor of the State for two terms, and is a man of rare good sense; Judge Beckner is editor of the Winchester Democrat and a lawyer of ability, while Mr. Machen has served a short term in the United States Senate. They are all men of sense and liberal views, and will likely fill the positions with credit. The salary is $2,000 per year and expenses.

We learn from good authority that Capt. Tom Henry, democratic candidate for Appellate Clerk, is preparing a statement for the public, which, while admitting that he unconsciously took more whisky than necessary during his late visit to Louisville, will be backed by affidavits that he did not make himself the beast that has been charged, and at no time behaved himself in an ungentlemanly or obscene manner. We sincerely trust that he may be able to put a better aspect upon the whole matter, and, are, therefore, willing to suspend judgment until he does.

The Republicans in the Legislature have presented the energetic and capable correspondent of the Louisville Commercial with a handsome gold watch. The name of the young gentleman is Mr. Joseph Ekins, and he is the same who came near having his back broken by the late Governor because he dared to intimate that there was something dark about the pardoning business. Mr. Ekins has showed more spirit than any of the Frankfort correspondents, and is highly deserving of all the honors shown him.

JOHN D. WHITE'S eloquence is not appreciated as much in the House of Representatives as it is in the mountainous counties of Clay, Knox and others. He prepared with great care a set speech on the tariff commission bill, and began the delivery of it to a full body, but when he closed there were less than forty members present. He is as much the laughing stock at Washington as he was at Frankfort.

THE Mahone readjusters in Virginia attempted to gerrymander the State in such a way as to give the readjusters eight out of ten Congressmen, but there were three honest men more than thieves in the Senate, and the bill was lost. It is said that this will give the State to the straight-out Democrats, and that the republicans prefer this to the unbearable boss system attempted by Mahone.

THE Attorney General of Pennsylvania has filed 213 suits against mutual insurance companies of that State. The intention is to whip them out of existence. This will not be very gratifying news to numerous parties in the east end of Lincoln and in various localities in Rockcastle, who have invested in them to the full extent of their ability.

THE Connecticut Legislature has very properly adopted a Constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture of intoxicating liquors in that State. The reason we suppose is that the stuff that is made there is so miserably mean that they want the genuine Kentucky article or none.

HON. JOHN A. PRALL, of Lexington, has been sent to the lunatic asylum. He was of counsel for defense in the Buford murder trial, and made a very powerful argument to prove the alleged insanity of the prisoner. Who knows but what that effort cost him his own mind?

THE Virginia Legislature has just passed a bill to employ criminals from the State prison to keep in order the graves of the Confederate soldiers in Hollywood Cemetery, and the New York Sun thinks this is pushing the mania for convict labor to extremes.

THE Legislature continues to debate and put off the penitentiary question. They have lost enough time in discussing it to build the institution, counting the expenses of the body at $1,000 per day.

THERE is some consolation in being deaf. The editor of the Danville Tribune says: Dr. Luke P. Blackburn may cuss us like Hades, if he wants to do so—we can't hear him any way!

THE Catlettsburg Democrat is of the opinion that Governor Blackburn's statement of what he said about us does not help the matter at all, and that the opinion of every man who is not blinded by his faith in the great tycoon. The Legislature has as yet taken no action in the matter, and judging from the character of a majority of the body, is not likely to do so. They are afraid of displeasing the Governor, whereas it is due to him, to the people and to us that an investigation should be had. It should not go uncontradicted that the Governor of Kentucky ever, if he is a pitiful old imbecile, has offered a reward for the killing of a citizen whose only crime has been to criticize his acts; but we can stand it if he can. The press and the people are with us in the matter, while he is left in a most unenviable attitude.

CAPT. HOWGATE, who was in jail at Washington for embezzling over a hundred thousand dollars from the government was allowed to take a walk on the streets each day in the custody of a bailiff. This worked all right for awhile, but on Friday last he gave his guard the dodge, and now this hightoned thief is enjoying himself outside the borders of the country whose treasury he has robbed. It strikes us that the jailer should be made to suffer the severest penalty of the law; in the first place, for making such a distinction among his prisoners, and in the second, for allowing this man to escape. Of course it was a put up job.

THE Midway Clipper, from which we got the information that the Sheriff of Woodford county had returned 3,600 delinquents, asks us to correct the statement, since it was misinformed in the first mention. The correct number is 1,539—456 white and 1,083 colored. The Clipper thinks this is doing well, but here we would soon get rid of a Sheriff that could do no better. The number given is more than twice that returned in Lincoln.

In a speech on the tariff question Friday, John D. White referred to Col. Gabe Wharton as officially corrupt, and that gentleman has gone thence to make him eat his words or fight. They say, however, that John is as brave a lad as ever was, at least he waded into Speaker Biggers, like a gallant warrior, notwithstanding the old man was twice his age.

THE Committee appointed on the Capital removal question report in favor of removal and recommend Louisville first, Lexington second. The former's bid is $1,000,000, and Lexington on Saturday agreed to give $500,000. Two of the Committee made a minority report in favor of letting the Capital remain where it is.

EX-PRESIDENT HAYES has opened his little heart and contributed the vast sum of $250 to the Garfield memorial fund. Considering that he drew $200,000 to which he was never entitled, besides numerous and sundry perquisites, he could have afforded a much larger sum.

LEGISLATIVE.

—The Senate has passed the House bill authorizing Lincoln county to appropriate money to build turnpikes.

—Both bodies adjourned on Friday after adopting appropriate resolutions on the death of Hon. Paul J. Donaghy.

—On a reconsideration of the bill to take the sense of the people next August as to whether liquor as a beverage shall be manufactured in this State, the Senate rejected it 10 to 17.

—Under the Superior Court bill the State is divided into three districts, from each of which a Judge is to be elected at a salary of $3,500 per year. This will be known as the Second District, and will be composed of the counties of Monroe, Cumberland, Metcalfe, Russell, Adair, Green, Taylor, Casey, Laine, Lincoln, Clinton, Wayne, Pulaski, Rockcastle, Boyle, Marion, Garrard, Madison, Washington, Nelson, Mercer, Jessamine, Bullitt, Spencer, Jefferson, Shelby, Henry, Franklin, Anderson, Oldham, Trimble, Carroll, Woodford, Jackson, Knox, Laurel and Whitley.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

—Number of business failures last week 122.

—The Ohio Republican State Convention is to be held on the 7th of June.

—A grand special excursion from Richmond, Va., to Louisville is advertised for May 12.

—Elias P. Haden, a soldier of the war of 1812, died at Mayeville on the 14th, aged 85.

—For the second time in two years the Cincinnati Copperage Company is burned out. Loss, $110,000.

—Commonwealth's Attorney Robertson is announced as a candidate for Congress in Proctor Knott's district.

—Fargo, Dakota, has suffered $100,000 by the flood in the Red River of the North, and mud is left knee-deep all over the city.

—The Republican caucus at Mayeville, recently endorsed Col. R. T. Jacob, and recommended the faithful to vote for him.

—The Court of Claims in Clark County has fixed the rate of taxes for county purposes for this year at 30 cts on the dollar.

—The town council of Franklin has declared it an indictable offense to sell any thing in that place on Sunday except medicine.

—At Columbus, Ohio, the Grand Jury has indicted two members of the Legislature charged with accepting bribes from lobbyists.

—A sailing steamer has arrived at New- foundland with 24,000 seals, and the catch of the whole fleet off Labrador is reported as great as 130,000.

—Two negroes, Henry Ivy and Sim. Acopp, were taken from jail at Selma Ala., Friday, and hung by a mob, for the murder of J. B. Welser.

—The next annual meeting of the Kentucky Millers' Association will be held in Louisville, on Thursday, May 4, at the Board of Trade rooms.

—The U. S. House Committee on Education and Labor has favorably considered the bill appropriating $10,000,000 for general educational purposes.

—Confederate bonds are going up again. A broker at Atlanta, Ga., has an order from Frankfort-on-the-Main to buy $4,000,000 worth, and the price has advanced from $1 per $1,000 to $3.

—The report of the Treasurer of the National Land League, in session at Washington, shows receipts of $180,700; total amount sent to Ireland, both direct and from the Treasurer, $272,810.

—The Virginia Senate has refused to pass the Reapportionment Bill, passed by the House. If the bill had passed the Reapportionment would have eight of the ten Congressional Districts in the State.

—The President Inquirer Gen. Fitz Jno. Porter that he has no power to relieve him of the disabilities imposed by a Court Martial. The best he can do is to pardon him if he confesses guilt, which of course Porter will never do.

—The Midway Orphan School Trustees have adopted the plan drafted by Architect McMurtry, for a new $100,000 building. There are to be 350 rooms, the edifice to be four stories, and surrounded by an imposing observatory.

—The respective Chairmen of the Executive Committees of the two wings of the democratic party have issued a joint call for a State Convention of the party in this city, June 19th, to nominate a candidate for Governor of Tennessee.

—The House Committee on Elections Saturday, decided, 7 to 4, that Jesse J. Finley (Dem.), the sitting member, not elected from the Second District of Florida, and that Horatio Baber, Jr., (Rep.), is entitled to the seat.

—At Sedalia, a number of persons who were in the same division with Jesse James, when he was a soldier in the regular Confederate service, have started a subscription for his widow and children. Over two hundred and fifty dollars has already been raised.

—The local papers of Richmond, Va., are endeavoring to get up a grand Centennial Celebration of her corporate existence on the 3rd day of July next. Capt. John Smith discovered the site in 1609, but it was not laid off as a town till 1733. It became such in 1842 and in 1872, and was declared a city.

—Guiteau is out in another car. "Had they (his relatives) all died," he says, "twenty-five years ago, it would have been a God-send to me." He charges Scoville with a desire to get control of his (Guiteau's) book, and says he has already paid Scoville $275, which is more than his alleged earnings are worth.

—Captain H. Morgan, in jail for embezzlement, escaped from his guard Friday afternoon, while visiting his home. He asked permission to go home for a few hours to see his daughter just returned from Vassar College. A guard was sent with him. In some way the bailiff lost sight of the prisoner, and the latter escaped.

—The rewards given to Sergeant Mann for not doing his duty are multiplying fast. It is now announced that not only is he to have $1,500 a year as a Chicago clerk, but his wife has been offered $125 a month as a saleswoman in the same city. So much for his shooting at a prisoner whom he was trusted to guard against being shot.

—The great dry goods firm of A. T. Stewart & Co., New York, has decided to close out and quit the business. Since Mr. Stewart's death in 1876, Judge Hilton has been the representative of his widow, who having for $1,000,000 and other valuable considerations, assigned all her interests. The business of the firm at one time was immense, and in three years amounted to $203,000,000. In 1864 the income was four million.

—The members of the Louisiana delegation estimate the loss to the cotton crop of the recent overflow at not less than 20 per cent, and the total loss to the State in crops, live stock, animals, fences, &c., at fully $50,000,000. It is supposed that 60 per cent of the cane planted for sugar is absolutely destroyed. The sugar fields inundated by the flood are a total loss, and the cane will have to be entirely replanted. It will take two years to renew the crop.

GARRARD COUNTY.

Lancaster.

—Wm. A. Yanis has accepted a position in a Chicago business house and left for that place Monday.

—Geo. Higginbottom is a candidate for Sheriff of Garrard county, subject to the action of the democracy.

—I am authorized to announce Hiram Rothwell, a candidate for Sheriff of Garrard county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

—Jno. Lusk and Wm. Spencer, two negroes about fifteen years old, outraged the person of a negro girl, near town a few nights ago, for which they are in jail to await an indictment.

—The city papers are telegraphing for reserved seats at the Austin hanging which was to take place to-day. The case was argued before the Court of Appeals last week and his attorneys confidently expect a reversal.

—In order to close out their canned goods, Geo. D. Burdett & Co. offer for the next thirty days—Yarmouth Corn, per dozen, $1.00; 3 lb. Standard Tomatoes, $1.50; 2 lb. do., $1.20; Peaches, Apricots, Pine Apples, &c., in proportion. Sugar, Coffee, Tea, and Queensware, much lower than elsewhere.

MT. VERNON DEPARTMENT.

Sam. M. Burdett, Editor.

—We have examined the fruit and find that it is not all killed yet in some localities, while in others it is all dead. We cannot see that the wheat is injured any yet at any place where we have examined it. Oats is looking well considering the cold weather. Farmers have resumed corn planting again. There was some corn before the freeze, but it is said that because it was frost-bitten, will not damage it in the least.

—Isaac A. Stewart is attending the Lancaster Circuit Court this week. Willis Adams, Jr., of Pointlick, was here Sunday. Dr. A. C. Lovel will commence a school at Livingston this week. Mr. F. J. Force, a young lawyer of Shelbyville, stopped in town Saturday. He is on his way to Harboursville. Miss Alice Ward, of Livingston Station, spent Sunday at J. L. Whitehead's. J. Wata Brown has been tramping round over the county for the last week.

—It is said that we have a local option law in Rockcastle county, but I don't believe it; because there are more drunken men in town on Saturdays now than there were before this act was said to have become a law. There are about five whisky shops in town and twice as many in the county. At nearly all of these places whisky is being dealt out to both adults and minors in any quantity to suit the purchaser. The only prerequisite is that the money must be paid. These men are making money, but whose fault is it that they are allowed to continue? Is it the county authorities, or is it the Commonwealth's Attorney? Who can answer?

—The boys were playing marbles up at the school-house, when John Williams and Shack Gentry got into a dispute about the game. After quarrelling awhile, Williams exhibited his "little pistol," saying he would shoot the top of his (Gentry's) head off. Prof. Hopper happened to see them at this time and took the pistol and finding no loads in it put it in the stove and burned it. Williams immediately left school and home, telling the boys he was going to Louisville. He started and got as far as Brookfield, where some of his friends caught and brought him back. The boys are about 13 or 15 years old. Right now would be a good time for their parents to teach them a lesson which would last them a life time.

SOME PRESS COMMENTS.

Gov. Blackburn is getting in his work. A few days ago the young man who drew a pistol on Walter Walton was convicted, and immediately Governor Blackburn pardoned him. A couple of weeks since the Louisville News published a libelous article on Walton and Gov. B. has made the editor of the News a Colonel on his staff. "Old Paul" has Grant's trail—he remembers his friends. —[Selon Record.]

We last week reproduced an article from the outspoken LITTONIAN JOURNAL, Stanford Ky., in which its editor profers a serious charge against our Chief Magistrate. Knowing Walton personally we do not for a moment doubt even the least details of the charge he makes. He is a high-toned gentleman, a conscientious editor, far from in the charge of his duty, and in consequence wrong in his "suspect opinion." The Governor, we think to crawl out of the ugly predicament by saying he was only joking. The Legislature in the same jocular way ought to impeach a governor who has no respect for the dignity and responsibility of the office he holds, who instead of honoring the law, has done so much to bring it into disrepute by encouraging crime through indiscriminate pardons.—[Winchester Tel.]

DR. HARTER'S
A combination of Potassium Iodide, Ferrous Sulfate and Phosphorus in a palatable form. The only preparation of Iron that will strengthen the blood, and is characterized by other iron preparations.
GENTLEMEN: I have used DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC in my practice, and in an experience of twenty-five years in medicine, have never found anything to give the results that DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC does. In many cases of Nervous Prostration, Female Debility, Dyspepsia, and all the weaknesses of the blood, this specific remedy, in my hands, has done some wonderful cures. Cases that have baffled some of our most eminent physicians, have yielded to this great and incomparable remedy. I prescribe it in preference to any iron preparation made. In fact, such a compound as DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC is a necessity in my practice.

There has been three heavy frosts since our last report, but we are told that there are still some peaches and plenty of apples left.

A Cynthiana girl asked Mr. Barnes if he could remove her freckles by scolding her. Our information does not state the answer of the good evangelist.

The P. G. R.'s are not only pretty but solid. Six of them tip the beam at 700 pounds, an average of 132 1/2 pounds. The largest single accumulation of sweetness is 140 1/2 pounds.

The Angel Scene, the Terrace Scene—Haman proclaiming Mordecai the favored of the King—and several other tableaux are alone worth the price of admission next Friday night.

To-morrow was the day set for the execution of William Austin, but he will not hang. The Court of Appeals has gotten hold of the case, and that means a good deal for Austin.

The old citizen's invariable rule that seven rainy Sundays follow a rainy Easter, has an exception for once. It didn't rain last Sunday, but it was the first clear one for six or eight weeks.

Sheriff McKee closed out the stock of goods of Kennedy & Saunders at auction Saturday. It invoiced $800, but only brought $505. The liabilities of the firm are said to be at least $2,500.

This war claimant whose names were recently published in this paper, will be able to draw their money in a few days as both Houses of Congress has passed an appropriation bill for their payment.

The Sheriff took George Harrott, col'd, to the "Dan" yesterday, leaving ten prisoners in jail that may yet have to take the same trip. Harrott will remain four years for robbery. His white accomplice is still at large.

A GREAT commotion was created in the Presbyterian Church Sunday by Mrs. J. B. Owens telling from her seat apparently dead. Several physicians were called, and after a short time she revived sufficiently to be taken home. It was pronounced an attack of vertigo, from which she has now nearly recovered.

CARRIAGES at bottom prices at E. P. Owsley's.

THE Lincoln Mills will do custom grinding on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week, until further notice.

BANK STOCK.—Col. W. G. Welch, administrator of John Shanks, advertises the sale of 67 shares of Farmers National Bank Stock to occur in Stanford, on April 29.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.—Frye Blackerby accidentally shot John Kelley at Junction City Sunday night with a pistol. The wound is in the head, but is not considered dangerous.

ESTHER, the beautiful Queen, the most popular of American Spectacular and Dramatic Operas, will be rendered at Opera House, this city, Friday night next, by stately-five persons.

HARRY B. FITCH, representing N. Sid. Platt, Louisville, is at the Myers House. He is prepared to take orders for Platt's "Apollo Yoke" shirt, and show a line of fine furnishing goods.

PETER HANSON has again taken the agency of the Singer Sewing Machine, the best in the world, and can be found at his store in Stanford, with sample machines and all their attachments.

It will cost our neighbors at least one hundred dollars to put their entertainment (Queen Esther) on the stage here. Let us show our appreciation of their efforts by giving them a rousing house.

Mrs. C. C. Bennett, who is highly recommended as an entertaining and instructive lecturer, will deliver a lecture on the "manners and customs of the Sandwich Islanders." In one of the Churches here Thursday night.

SPECIAL TERM.—Judge Owsley has set the 8th day of June, as a special term of the Circuit Court for the trial of such civil cases as may be brought before it. He will not hold on the 27th of this month as heretofore advertised.

NOTICE.—All persons indebted by note or account to the estate of Samuel Hiett, deceased, Garrard county, are notified to settle at once, and all having claims against the same to present them to the Administrator, Lewis Y. Leavell, Adm'r.

C. C. W.—William Wintock and Green Hiett, both colored, were lodged in jail yesterday, the former to remain 20 days and pay a fine of $30 and the latter 10 days and $25 for carrying concealed weapons. They were brought from Crab Orchard.

J. W. HAYDEN opened this week a No. 1 line of Dress Goods, comprising Solid and Lace Nun's Veilings, Hosiery, and a great variety of Staple Goods, which have been marked down to the lowest figures. Also splendid Moire and Satin Trimmings in all shades.

THE reserved seat sale for the Opera of Esther, exceeds that for any entertainment ever given here. The first day that they were offered (Friday) there were 62 taken, and the sale has continued right along since. See McRoberts & Stagg at once or you will get left.

SUPERIOR JURY.—B. M. Burdett, Esq., is announced in this issue as a candidate for Judge of the Superior Court, from this, the Second District. Mr. Burdett is a good lawyer, a sound democrat, a popular gentleman and an honest man, and would fill the position with credit to himself. We respectfully ask a consideration of his claims.

CENTRAL KENTUCKY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.—On Wednesday, the 19th inst., the Association will meet in Danville, at 10 o'clock, A. M. The subject for discussion will be, "The best means of Reducing Temperature in Continued Fever." Dr. J. C. Bogle Chairman. Those having Voluntary papers will please notify the Secretary before the hour of meeting. Steele Bailey, Secretary.

AN Aurora Borealis of such unusual brilliancy was displayed in the north-eastern heavens on Sunday night, that it was thought here that Lancaster was in flames, and one gentleman who lives there and does business here, actually started and went several miles before he discovered his mistake. The light was greater than that of a full moon, and lasted from 11 o'clock till near 1.

ESTHER, THE BEAUTIFUL QUEEN.—Prof. J. W. Crum, leader of the Lancaster Musical Society, has arranged for a rendition of this fine Opera at the Stanford Opera House next Friday night, April 21st. There are 65 persons in the cast, who are thoroughly up in their parts, and not only sing and act them well, but costume them to perfection. They have created great enthusiasm at each place they have appeared, and will no doubt take our people by storm. A big house is assured.

CAN'T HELP IT.—Jesse Sprague is at it again. Recently he was arrested at Bowling Green for obtaining money under false pretenses, but was released for want of identity. He skipped out as soon as released, and was next heard of in Memphis, where, according to the Bowling Green Gazette, he was arrested a few days ago and taken to Missouri, where he is wanted for counterfeiting. When taken he had several hundred dollars of the "green" on his person. He gave his name as Weddington, but it sounds too much like Jesse's doing to be any mistake about it.

JOHN VAN GUNNY.—The Mayville Daily Bulletin, in behalf of the Mason County Historical Society, wishes to know if we can obtain any information of John van Gunny, who moved from Pennsylvania to Lincoln county at an early date. We accordingly sought the assistance of Mr. John Blain, County Clerk, who kindly examined many of the old documents and deeds, but failed to discover such a name in or upon them. He suggests that perhaps Mr. van Gunny came to Kentucky when Lincoln embraced so much of its area, and that he may have held lands under a patent, which was not recorded until the county had been subdivided.

NEW LINE of Combination and side-hand (Gingham and Calicoes) can now be seen at J. W. Hayden's.

EVERY one should read the Book of Esther. They will then be enabled to appreciate the Drama at Opera House Friday night next.

JUDITH BROWN declines to enter into a newspaper controversy with "Observer," satisfied that he has acted in the matter solely as the law directed.

JUDGE R. J. BRECKINRIDGE, who, as Common Pleas Judge of this District, won so many good opinions as a honest, correct and conscientious dispenser of justice, is a candidate for Superior Judge in this district. He is, without a general, popular gentleman, and will make a tip top race. His democracy is as pure, too, as Jefferson's.

MARRIAGES.

—STONE—WILLIAM.—At the residence of the bride's parents, Cyrus M. Moberly, of Garrard county, Ky., Mr. Perry Stone and Miss Time William Miss Time was handsomely dressed in a garnet cashmere, trimmed in broad satin and never looked more beautiful. Mr. Perry has won a little jewel; their ages are 19 and 17. The attendants were Mr. John Ray and Miss Marie Ray. Her uncle gave her an elegant supper, which was largely attended by friends and relatives, and the next day the groom's mother gave them a dinner, which was a most elegant affair. May they live long and happily. E. J. Moberly.

DEATHS.

—Carrie, an infant daughter of Rev. J. E. Triplett, died Sunday night of pneumonia. The funeral sermon will be preached at McKinney this morning at 8 o'clock, after which the remains will be taken to Danville for interment.

RELIGIOUS.

—The new Christian Church at Elizabeth town was dedicated last Sunday morning. A collection to pay a debt of $280 realized $352.

—Horse Case is soon to enjoy a theological discussion between Elder J. S. Sweeney, of the Christian Church, and Rev. J. Ditzler, D. D., of the Methodist Church.

—Since January 1st there has been 2,729 conversions in the Baptist, Presbyterian, and Methodist Churches in Cincinnati. The latter church largely leads in numbers.

—The General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of the United States will convene in Huntsville, Ala. May 18, and remain in session about eight days.

—The Baldwin Faith Cure is in full blast in Louisville, and the current issue of the Democrat gives a long list of contributions to it. Can such a thing flourish in enlightened Louisville?

—Revs. I. S. McElroy and E. M. Green exchanged pulpits Sunday, and the congregation here got a couple of sermons that were remarkable for their length. Elder Cox was a trifle long winded at his morning service, his sermon lasting one hour and ten minutes.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

—Lewis R. Jones sold to Reuben Harris a three year old snobroke filly for $100.

—F. D. Albright has sold his wool clip at 25 cents per lb. to Hale & Nunneley.

—HALE & NUNNELLEY have bought already 30,000 pounds of wool, most of it at 25 cents.

—Dogs killed 3 sheep belonging to M. O. Vanderveer, near Richmond junction on Saturday night.

—The proprietors of Lincoln Mills want to buy 500 or 600 barrels of corn, for which they will pay the highest market price.

—H. T. Bush sold to Ferris Wood & Co., 16 3-year-old cattle, weighing about 1,050 pounds at 53 cents; and 4 weighing about 850 pounds, at 51 cents.

—There is now in store at Chicago, less than half as much Spring wheat as there was one year ago; less than one-fifth as much oats, and 500,000 bushels less corn.

—Ambrose Buford, of Covington, has purchased two more car loads of cows with calves in this vicinity, making three, at prices ranging from $35 to $50 and is still buying.

—Rev. H. M. Linney, Real Estate Agent at Danville, sold to Reuben Chandler, of Chicago, the house and lot (4 acres), on Harrodsburg avenue, belonging to S. V. Rowland, for $6,050.

—Offers of 90 cents per bushel for the next crop of wheat are being made. The prospect for a good crop is very fine, if the present cold snap has not injured it and we are told that it has not to much extent.

—In Kentucky last year 780 short-horns were sold at an average of $191.98 per head. In Illinois, where the greatest number, 904, changed hands, the average was but $137. The largest average was in Michigan, where 120 head brought $599.83 each.

—George Baker has bought the following lots of extra cattle: Of Dave and Frank Logan, 2 car loads at 6 cents; of J. S. Hundley, one car load at same price; of R. H. and L. Logan, 60 very fine at 6 1/2; and of Peter Henry, 101 do at same figures. All are for July delivery.

—According to the April report of the Department of Agriculture, the condition Winter wheat is high throughout the West (Ohio alone reporting below 100). In the cotton States, and in Delaware, Maryland and Virginia. Those below the average are Connecticut, 90; New York, 87; New Jersey, 95; Pennsylvania, 76; and Ohio 97.

—Geo. Baker has purchased of Daniel Sings, of this county, 10 head of cattle, 22 for July delivery at 6 cents, and 18 for fall delivery at 6 1/2. Mr. Sings considers the latter much the best price. Baker also bought of Mat Sandilge, 20 head for June delivery, at 6 cents, and of Wyatt Sandilge, 32 head, same delivery and same price.

—Below are the ruling prices for provisions, &c., in Stanford: Bacon shoulders, 10c; hams, 15c; sides, 15c. Flour, $4.00 to $4.50; corn, $4.50; meal, $1 per bushel; oats, 75c; coffee, 12c to 20c; molasses, 60c; to 75c; dried apples, 8c; peaches, 8c; Irish potatoes, $1.00 to $2; sweet potatoes, $2; butter, 30c; cheese, 20c; eggs, 10c; salt by 7 bushel bin, $2.00.

—DANVILLE COURT.—There was not a very large crowd present, and the number of cattle was smaller than usual. Capt. H. T. Bush, snobroker, reports 250 to 300 mostly young stock of fair quality, with prices ranging from 3 1/2 to 4 1/2 cents for best. All salable stock was closed out by noon, and there was a good demand for more. Some common mules sold at $75 to $100 per head. Horses $50 to $125. Col. Ike Dunn sold cattle at 2 1/2 to 4 1/2. Horses $50 to $100.

BOYLE COUNTY.

Danville.

—Messrs. —Williams, A. C. Culbertson and U. L. Macey left Versailles on bicycles at 2 1/2 o'clock and arrived at Harrodsburg, a distance of 32 miles, at 8 1/2 o'clock yesterday evening. They came from Harrodsburg here in about an hour, and will return to Versailles to-day.

—Should an election be ordered to fill the vacancy in the Legislature occasioned by the death of Hon. P. J. Donaghy, Mr. J. Wesley Durham, of this city, will doubtless receive the nomination if he will consent to serve. Mr. Durham is a good parliamentarian and possesses all the qualifications of a good legislator.

—Rev. I. S. McElroy, of Stanford, is likely to receive numerous calls to perform the marriage ceremony in Boyle if he can maintain the standard he reached on the occasion of the nuptials of Mr. D. P. Rowland and Miss Lizzie A. Lee on Wednesday last. His ceremony delighted the young folks as well as the older ones who had "been there."

—PERSONAL.—Miss Minnie McDowell, of Harrodsburg, Mary Lee, of Louisville, and Carrie Harlow, of Richmond, are visiting Mrs. D. P. Rowland. Miss Helen Reed, of Hustonville, is visiting the family of Dr. Dunlap. Miss Wallace, of Nicholasville, is visiting Miss Maggie Randolph. Miss Florence Phillips, of Sedalia, Mo., is expected in Danville this week.

—To-day is County Court day and the following are the gentleman horses exhibited and their owners, or those having them in charge: Messenger Chief, Mock and Dunn; El. Kimble, C. J. Pittman; Lightfoot, Arnold and Stonewall, Cecil Bro's and Rue; Almont, E. P. Falconer; Blacks Hamiltonian, W. A. Russell; Geo. Wilkes, Jr., W. J. Lyle; Woodford Boy, Slim Stangher.

—The thanks of everybody who delights in the improvement of stock are due a distinguished architect of this city, who last week brought from a remote corner of Rockcastle county, a snake with a yellow stripe around its neck and turned it loose in the cliffs of Dix River. A gentleman well versed in such matters thinks the cross will produce a snake that has long been needed in this locality. A sort of combined snake, one that will be useful for all purposes.

—The Fair held in James' Hall on Wednesday and Thursday evenings for the benefit of St. Paul's Catholic Church was very successful, about one thousand dollars being realized, which will clear the church of indebtedness. The following are the names and residences of those who drew the leading prizes and the value of the prizes drawn: Mrs. — Ogden, Louisville, fine breech-loading shot-gun, $75; H. Goldrick, Bartlettown, fine cooking stove and vessels, $40; Mike Sullivan, Hargis, marble-top dressing-case, $25; C. Sullivan, Tateville, Pulaski county, set buggy harness, $25; Pat Lynch, Science Hill, Ky., baby buggy, $20; John Webber, Goreburg, silver pitcher, $15; John Bright, Danville, set chinaware, $15; Mc. McCarty, Lexington, album, $10; M. McCabe, Somerset, $10; Milton Smith, colored, Danville, fine calf, $10; Mr. — McIntosh, Danville, ton of coal; J. V. Vannardall, Shelby City, Berkshire hog, $10; Sam Diggerdick, Richmond, pair fine shoes, $9; Wm. Crawford and John McCann, Harrodsburg, barrel of flour; Evan S. Warren, Danville, silver tea-set, $80. The thanks of Father Brady and the ladies of the church are tendered the following named gentlemen who conducted the drawing, to wit: Hubert McGowan, J. P. McGorty, D. S. Hinman, Wm. P. Blake, C. R. Anderson and Thornton Edwards.

—A sudden and appalling storm swept away forty houses at Fausse Point, La., and the loss of stock, crops, etc., is enormous. At New Iberia, all the establishments on the bayou are overwashed, and also many houses heretofore considered safe. At least 15,000 persons in Iberia Point are left without shelter or support.
